

WARNING

Blue-Green Algae Suspected

Blue-green algae occur naturally in rivers, lakes and dams and are common during warmer months in Victoria.

Contact with affected water may cause harm to humans and animals. For your safety, we recommend:

- No swimming, avoid all contact with water

- Do not use water for drinking, cooking, washing or showering

- No water sports

- No dogs in water