

Wilson's Promontory National Park

Welcome

Welcome to 'The Prom'. Wilson's Promontory National Park's main facilities are located at Tidal River, 30km (30 minutes) drive from the park entrance. Please be aware of wildlife while driving through the park as their movements are unpredictable. When slowing down or stopping to observe wildlife, please find a safe area to pull over, completely off the road.

The maximum driving speed in Tidal River is 10km/h.

Visiting for the day

Wilson's Promontory National Park is open every day, including weekends and public holidays. Please check the website for any changed park conditions before visiting at parks.vic.gov.au.

Day visitor entry to the park is free. There are many places to visit as you drive through the park to Tidal River. It is recommended that you exit the park prior to sunset, as wildlife are more active from dusk to dawn.

Allocated Camping at Tidal River

Fees apply, and pre-booking is essential to secure your campsite. There are 20 powered sites that fill quickly.

During the summer school holidays, Easter and most long weekends, campsites must be booked well in advance.

Permits allow the use of campground toilets, hot showers and coin-operated laundry facilities. There is a limit of six people per site. All personal property, including cars, must fit onto your campsite.

Accommodation at Tidal River

Pre-booking is essential. If you arrive after hours without a reservation, you will be unable to book or stay in the accommodation.

Overnight hiking

Overnight hikers need to obtain campsite permits prior to commencing a hike. If you arrive after hours and have not already obtained a permit, you will be unable to commence your hike.

If you have pre-booked camping or accommodation and arrive after hours, please read the information board outside the Visitor Centre entrance for check-in procedures.
